

Quick Reference for Officers

What to say (simple + effective):

"Fences For Fido helps families fix the situation so dogs can stay safely at home."

Conversation Options

1. Standard (go-to)

"Hey—I want to leave you with a resource we share with families in situations like this. There's a nonprofit called Fences For Fido; they help with fencing, dog houses, and vet care, all at no cost. If this would be helpful, I'd really encourage you to reach out."

2. Short version (quick interactions)

"This is a group that can help with fencing and other support, free of charge. It's worth reaching out."

3. Supportive (if the person seems overwhelmed)

"I know situations like this can be stressful. We work with a group that helps families with fencing and care so dogs can stay safe at home. They're really kind people—this could be a good option."

4. When there are compliance concerns

"One way to help address this is by reaching out to this organization. They can help with fencing and support at no cost, which can make a big difference."

Key Points to Reinforce

- This is a free resource
- Focus is on support, not punishment
- Helps families resolve situations
- Goal is keeping dogs safe and at home
